

L&T Ranked Asia's 2nd Most Sustainable Company in Industrial Sector

L&T has been ranked 2nd in Asia in the industrial sector in Channel NewsAsia's Sustainability Rankings. Channel NewsAsia is a respected Singapore-based news & current affairs TV channel. It conducted an analysis of companies across Asia to determine the continent's Top 100 'Most Sustainable Corporations'. The analysis took into account the performance of the company in terms of contribution to social development, good governance and environmental protection. L&T stood 65th in Asia in rankings across all sectors.

Territories covered in the ranking include China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea and Thailand.

The Sustainability Ranking is a joint initiative between Channel NewsAsia and CSR Asia, a leading provider of advisory, research and training services on sustainable business practices. Sustainalytics - a global investment research firm, specialising in corporate environmental, social and governance research and analysis - assisted the project.

Channel NewsAsia's ranking follows other recognition secured by L&T in the CSR space including 'Best Corporate Report' award from the World CSR Congress, Good Corporate Citizen award from The Economic Times and an honourable mention in the Carbon Disclosure Project's Global Report. This indicates the increasing recognition of L&T's sustainability performance across all critical parameters.
