L&T Ranks In Top 10 Companies for CSR - The Economic Times

L&T's wide-ranging CSR efforts received further recognition as a survey by the leading business newspaper The Economic Times along with Futurescape and IIM Udaipur ranked us among the Top 10 of 'India's Best Companies for CSR'. L&T is the only company in the engineering & construction segment to figure in the Top 10.

The Economic Times survey studied the country's top 115 companies to arrive at the ranking. It covers industries as varied as automobiles, banks, diversified, FMCG, infrastructure, information technology, metals and mining, oil, power, steel, pharmaceuticals, telecommunications and others. The study also draws on strategic frameworks like the Shared Value Framework to examine data.

L&T's initiatives in community development have been widely appreciated. Recognition received recently include:

- Ranked among five Indian companies in Global Carbon Disclosure Report 2014 by UK-based Carbon Disclosure Project.
- Ranked as Asia's Second Most Sustainable Company in Industrial Sector by Channel NewsAsia, Singapore.

- Won the 'Golden Peacock Global Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance' for 2014 by the Institute of Directors.
