Case Study

Next Generation Workplace design for Global Reinsurance Major

A Larsen & Toubro
Group Company

Client

Global Reinsurance Major

Challenges

The task was to build a mobility business case and do an application readiness check for greater mobile enablement for a cross section of global workforce.

LTI Solution

LTI adopted a design thinking-led approach to identify user profiles, key business processes & underlying applications for mobile enablement, and proposed a phased rollout plan.

- Evaluate user roles and their specific mobility requirements
- Build exhaustive use cases to support mobile adoption
- Evaluate the readiness of the current application suite to be mobile-ready to serve the needs of the target group
- Highlight specific challenges and constraints in the current portfolio
- Elaborate possible options to transform the portfolio to adopt the Next Gen technologies
- Suggest controls and checkpoints to ensure security and confidentiality

Business Benefits Delivered

- Roadmap to build a mobile-enabled workforce
