

eZ-Shift: Swift Deployment of ERP on Cloud

Overview:

Cloud-based ERP can deliver several benefits for organizations. However, infrastructure engineers need to orchestrate multiple processes and address key issues relating to confidentiality, lack of controls and data security while moving enterprise applications to the cloud. There is a pressing need for organizations to streamline the process of migrating their ERP assets to the cloud.

How LTI can solve with eZ-Shift:

- LTI's eZ-Shift offering facilitates a seamless provisioning and configuration of enterprise systems on the cloud, following a pre-defined scoping
- eZ-Shift delivers the ERP system on a chosen configuration with a click of a script
- The automated solution enables architects to do clickable provisioning, installation, configuration and deployment, using DevOps automation tools
- The offering will be a determining factor in simplifying the layering of distributed architectural components

Solution Highlights

- Quick and simple VM and DB provisioning
- Single script for provisioning standalone and clustered ERP systems
- Summary and detailed infrastructure information

Key Outcomes

Leverage clickable provisioning, deployment and installation of Oracle ERP on the cloud

Reduce end-to-end processing time by 40%

Minimize or eliminate manual Intervention to significantly reduce errors

Institutionalize a defined set of processes for architects to follow while deploying the infrastructure on cloud

Well-designed customization of multiple architectural components
